

Week 2: Let God Do It!

FACILITATOR'S NOTE:

How to Prepare for Leading Your Group:

- Dedicate some time before leading to pray for your group and arrange the discussion questions in a way that suits their needs and the time given to meet.
- Review the Bible verses and “big idea” of the message to help you gain clarity around the heart of this week’s message.
- Use the discussion questions as a template. You do not need to use all the questions given. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your discussion in a way that honours God, engages the group and helps your group apply the Bible passage and the speakers “big idea” to their life.
- You are not the answer. Your responsibility is to facilitate the discussion and keep it on track. The questions are meant to spark conversation as your group interacts with the content of the message. Encourage interaction with the content as opposed to “answers” to the questions. It is ok to disagree and have different views in a way that honours God and values your group members’ own journey with God.

How to Use the Discussion Questions:

- Start your groups discussion with the “check-in” question to help your members reflect back on their week and follow up on last week’s message. It is ok if no one remembers the last week or applied the content. The weekly reminder for feedback may lead to application becoming a habit.
- Read this week’s scripture passages together (ask for volunteers) and guide your group through the “discuss” questions to initiate meaningful dialogue around key concepts or insights from this week’s message/passage.
- Move your group discussion to a deeper level by leading them through questions in the “apply” section. Use discernment to customize these application questions to meet the needs and dynamics of your group, moving from ideas about the message to the application of the message to your members life/current circumstances.
- Connect with God together as a group through prayer. This can be in the form of prayer requests or prayer practices.
- If you routinely do not have enough time to pray together, try starting your meeting with the prayer section. Many leaders have found that giving the group a cut off time to end the discussion (set a timer) and transition to prayer is very effective for time management (usually the last half hour of the meeting).
- Prayer is so key to the application of the passage and transitioning the message from the head to the heart. An open honest time of prayer will help members in your group feel cared for and more involved.
- Commitment to a time of prayer together as a group is key to a healthy group experience, spiritual growth, and the application of Scripture.

CHECK-IN	How did reflecting on being open to the differences that exist between people help you in your relationships this week ?
BIG IDEA	In the story of the feeding of the 5000, we see God’s invitation to let Him do what we can’t in our lives.
DISCUSS	Read: Mark 6:34-43 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Which of the following three reasons tends to make it difficult for you to admit to God that you need help? Procrastination, passing the blame, or worry? 2. What comfort comes from knowing that God is in control? What is the most comforting part of knowing that God wants you to recognize the limits of your resources? What are your current resources? 3. How well are you able to sense whether you are giving your resources cheerfully or grudgingly? 4. Like the five loaves and two fish, God multiplies the things we give Him. What would you love to see God multiplying in your life?
APPLY How do we respond to God’s teaching in meaningful ways? What might God ask of us in mind, spirit, or actions?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Where do you need a miracle, or a “God thing” in your life? Is there someone in the group who has experienced a time when God showed up in a miraculous way? 2. Within the safety of your LifeGroup, give LifeGroup members (or a trusted friend) the permission to share what kind of help they’ve noticed you have difficulty asking for. 3. Write a statement asking God what you need right now. 4. What role do we play in letting God do what we can’t? What practical steps can you take to offer the “loaves and fish” in your life?

PRAYER PRACTICE
(15 minutes)

Write down prayer requests for the group.

Either leader or another member can write.

Step 1: Begin the time of prayer by asking each member of the group to share one thing they need help with.

Step 2: Explain to the group that we will be praying for each other's prayer requests. Ask those who feel comfortable to pray for one of the requests given.

Step 3: Ask someone to pray first, then allow others to join in and pray afterwards.

Step 4: After all requests have been prayed for, the leader will allow a time of silence (approx. 1 minute), then will close the meeting by praying for any missed prayer requests and close the practice in a final prayer. (leader can use the following or do his/her own)

"Lord may we discover who we are in You. Give us ears to hear your calling. Help us Lord to be obedient to use the gifts you have given us for the benefit of others. Use us to bring change to our communities, to comfort those who need comfort and to serve those you put in our path." Amen.
